PARKING

The Edgecliff Centre offers free parking for up to 1.5 hours. The parking entrance is situated on the left immediately after turning into New McLean Street from New South Head Road (look for the sign for the Aldi Car Park Entry). From the car park, either take the stairs or lift to the ground floor and walk out of the building onto New South Head Road. Turn left and head downhill towards the city, crossing the traffic lights at New McLean St. Alternatively you can walk out the drive in entrance to the car park and walk across New McLean St. We are in the dark grey building on the left (second from the intersection) Number 179-191. At the entry level near the lifts there are large golden lights, turn right and you will see our sign.

TRAINS
